

Obituary

Born: Sunday, November 1, 1931

Died: Wednesday, October 23, 2019

HARRISVILLE, NY ~ Virginia "Virg" S. Lancor, 87, of State St., Harrisville, died on Wednesday, October 23, 2019, in the comfort of her home while under the care of her loving family and Lewis County Hospice.

Born November 1, 1931 in Canastota, NY, a daughter of Guerino "Germany" and Margaret (Bertolero) Fratini, she was a 1949 graduate of Canastota High School.

She married Joseph Lancor on May 28, 1960 in St. Agatha's Church in Canastota. Mr. Lancor died on September 4, 2011.

In her earlier years she worked with her eight siblings helping to take care of her family's restaurant and onion business in Canastota, and following high school, worked for a local grocery store in Canastota for a number of years. After her marriage, she moved to Harrisville where she became a Mom and homemaker, raising her two sons. Once her boys began school, Virg went to work at the local grocery store on Main St. in Harrisville where she worked continuously for over 47 years and through three separate store ownerships until just recently when her illness forced her to retire.

During her younger years, Virg was an outstanding athlete in high school. She was an exceptional bowler as well and was the first female bowler in Harrisville to ever bowl over a 600 series.

As a youngster, she enjoyed taking the train with her family to New York City to watch the NY Yankees play. She also enjoyed Syracuse Orange basketball, NASCAR racing, bingo and trips to Atlantic City casinos. Throughout her life, she loved her job, her coworkers, watching the NY Yankees and above all, her beloved family.

Surviving are two sons and her daughter-in-law, Scott D. Lancor, and Tracy and Angie Lancor, all of Harrisville; four granddaughters and their spouses, Maria and Christopher Campbell, Rosa and Carlos Toledo, Alicia and Michael Matice, and Nina and Ron Taylor; six great grandchildren, Angelo Brian, Joseph Scott, Johnathan Santino, Talia Lorna, Gianna Virginia and Leonardo Pasquale; two sisters, Madeline Paul, of Norwich, NY, and Mary Tornatore, of Canastota; two brothers and a sister-in-law, Richard and Mary Fratini, and Robert Fratini, all of Oneida, and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her loving husband, Joe, of 51 years, she was predeceased by her grandson, Brian Daniel Lancor, three brothers, Eugene, Francis and Nazzi Fratini, and a sister,
