

Obituary

Born: Saturday, July 4, 1981

Died: Tuesday, March 3, 2020

LeAnn L. Locklear, 38, of Croghan died on Tuesday, March 3, 2020 at the Upstate Medical Center, Syracuse, where she had been a patient briefly.

LeAnn was born July 4, 1981 in Carthage, the daughter of James and Judy Worley. She graduated from Carthage High School. LeAnn was a hero to her friends and family. Always encouraging others, she loved life, Disney, 80's music, and was a sucker for Romance and Horror movies. She was the hospitality director for the New Hope Baptist Church in Watertown and was loved by so many.

LeAnn leaves behind her husband, Brandon Locklear of Croghan; children, Seth Stevens and Failyn Locklear, both of Croghan; two sisters, Kim Ferguson and Tammy (Robert) Bebehilmer and a brother, Michael Worley. Also surviving are in-laws, Linda and Rick Ellis; Jonathan (Ashley) Locklear and Bradford (Becky) Ellis.

There will be a celebrating of life for LeAnn on Saturday, March 7, 2020 beginning at 11:00 am at the New Hope Baptist Church; 19983 State Route 3; Watertown, New York. Memorial contributions in lieu of flowers may be made to the New Hope Baptist Church of Watertown.

Memories and condolences may be shared with her family online at www.scanlonfuneral.com.

Service Summary

Celebration of Life

11:00 AM Sat Mar 07, 2020

New Hope Baptist Church

19983 State Route 3
Watertown, New York 13601