CASTORLAND, NY ~ Donald J. "Donnie" Company, 76, of State Rt. 410, Castorland, died peacefully with his family by his side in Lewis County General Hospital, Lowville, on Sunday, August 23, 2020.

Born October 3, 1943, in Lowville, NY, a son of Harold W. and Mary M. Hellinger Company, he was educated at Lowville Academy.

Early in his life, Donald worked on his family's farm on Rt. 410 in Castorland during most of the 1960's and early 1970's. In 1969, in addition to farming, he opened and ran a custom slaughter house on the family's farm that he operated for 6 years. In the mid 1970's, he began dealing in real estate, mainly buying and refurbishing various rental properties. Throughout the 1980's, 1990's, and early 2000's he continued his real estate endeavors by purchasing a mixture of undeveloped land and previously-owned properties throughout the Castorland, Carthage, New Bremen and Beaver Falls areas. Once acquired, he either constructed new residential homes, assembled pre-fabricated homes, or continued to renovate any broken-down and older homes and properties, most in preparation for rental. During his later years, he worked primarily at managing and maintaining all of his real estate holdings.

Mr. Company was a communicant of the former St. Ann's Catholic Church in Castorland, and attended St. Stephen's Catholic Church in Croghan.

He mostly enjoyed spending time and socializing with his family and friends.

Survivors include two brothers and two sisters, Harold Company, of Carthage, and Norman Company, of North Carolina, Pauline Murphy, of Croghan, and Joyce Kloster, of Rochester, and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was predeceased by two sisters, Shirley Ostrowski and Regina Ostrowski.
